KAHS CLASSICS

Pucker up!

We only act this way after cafeteria lunches . . .

One, two, three — KICK! One, two, three . . .

When's it due, Don?

Please, Lord, curve the test!

KAHS can change you . . .

No smiling in the hallway!

Look, it beats AAFES food . . .

Give the lady a big hand!

Look, Mom, my earrings fly!

KAHS CLASSICS

SPRIT WEEK 1987-88: KAHS had their annual Spirit Week beginning on Oct. 26. This year the Spirit lineup was quite different: on Monday, we had "Class Day," where each class decided on a "theme" for dressing. For instance, the Seniors chose the Punk Toga, while the Juniors decided to "let it all hang out" with the Flower Power of the 60's, but the Freshmen won the day with an all-time classic — Mix Match. On Tuesday, the school went all out for a lazy day at the beach, complete with sunglasses and the latest tanning oil for Beach Bum Day. On Wednesday, the students of KAHS raided their parents' closets in search of the prized possessions their parents held dear — of course, these possessions were perfect for Nerd Day. Thursday was a day for all those who have to rush to school — they just jumped up and came to school for this sleepy Pajama Day. Finally, on Friday, we had Black & White Day: All the students of KAHS came to school sporting their home colors. There was also a competition throughout the week for Best Spirited Class, which the Juniors won. For the Hallway Competition, the Seniors spirited off with the prize for their "Haunted Hallway." As well as dressing up for Spirit Week, the KAHS Ladies went all out for the ever popular Powder-Puff games. The cute Cheerleaders were surely a delightful sight as the Freshmen ran away with the title of Powder Puff Champs.

SPRIT WEEK!

HOMECOMING

HOMECOMING 1987-88 This year's Homecoming was traditional with a few changes. The bonfire on Oct. 30th needed a little bit of help getting started, but once it was underway, the KAHS Cheerleaders kept our spirits high. After the bonfire, the Junior High had their Homecoming Dance. At 11:00 the next day, the Homecoming Parade was ready to go and the football team was warming up for the game ahead. The game started at 1:00 and was tied until the end. However, the Fulda Falcons broke the tie and went on to defeat the Knights 20 to 14. During the half time the parade float winners were announced and the Homecoming Court was presented. The Juniors won the Float Competition and the Court was as follows: Casey Rice and David Sadoff; Trisha Wilson and Ira Holland; Leslie Sadoff and Damon Johnson; Melissa Maddox and Frank Ennix; Karie Rice and William Hunter; Debbie Hatch and Tom Hapgood; and our Queen, Evelyn Osborne and King, Kenny Charles. The dance was that night and the King and Queen were announced at 10:00. The dance itself was attended by the Senior High and made an eventful evening for all to remember.

NATIONAL JUNIOR HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor and National Junior Honor Societies are honorary organizations created to recognize and foster not only academic achievement, but positive scholastic responsibility and attitude as well. To become a member a student must excel in areas of scholarship, character, service and leadership and must be voted into the organization through the faculty. In becoming a member, he or she becomes a model of student excellence. Besides working to encourage this excellence, the groups meet regularly to implement such service activities as Teacher Appreciation, Teacher-Turn Around days, and a Drunk Driving campaign.

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE OF SCHOOLS is composed of student groups from the Baden Senior School (Canadian), the Lycee Charles de Gaulle (French), the Windeck Gymnasium (German), and KAHS. The International League of Schools meets monthly to promote international understanding and cooperation. Together the schools travel to places of cultural, historical or scientific interest that range from curling with the Canadians, bowling with the Americans, eating foods from the various cultures and traveling to area museums, government buildings, and scientific and architectural places of interest. These excursions not only encourage the kind of international atmosphere we've been able to enjoy at KAHS, but are a lot of fun too!!

SHAKESPEARE

SHAKESPEARE FEST: Once again, Shakespeare's universal plays have impacted lives and made memories, this year with a schoolwide festival. Some students made displays and banners, while other students believed their talents should be used in acting out Shakespearean scenes, doing presentations on his life and times, and even making a small newspaper for the day which could be distributed to those in attendance. A few students also put together audio-visual shows or found medieval games for students to participate in.

Not only were Talent Pool students involved in this major event, but a small recorder ensemble comprised of band students performed, as did the chorus. Home economics students entered certain Old English recipes into a contest, while the video class worked at making a video of the fest.

By the end of the day, everyone was quite exhausted, but each had decided that the day was a success for those who had attended and learned about Shakespeare's ability to adapt to all audiences, and even more so for those who had participated and learned about Shakespeare and themselves.

FESTIVAL

SHAKESPEARE FEST HIGHLIGHTS (pictured clockwise, starting top, right): a variety of books and posters relating to Shakespeare were on display; Christine

Guthmiller dons the fashion of the period; the highly popular game of chess was also enjoyed by the students; spice tea, pudding, plum cake, and pies were tempting treats; friendly hellos from Shakespeare fans; Shawn Spengler's juggling act; apple bobbing was a favorite of the students; greetings from the Bard himself; traditional costumes with traditional foods provided by the cafeteria staff.

The school year started out with the Drama Department producing their first play of the year. Auditions were held the first week of school and parts were chosen for an old fashioned melodrama, a play where characters, situations, and even dialogue is stock. A melodrama is also traditionally audience oriented and the audience is encouraged to "boo" the villain and "cheer" the hero. This tradition was going to be pushed in the Knight's production of NO MOTHER TO GUIDE HER: OR MORE TO BE PITIED THAN CENSURED. Things were looking great for the Knights as they went in to practice. After 5 weeks of practice, it came, opening night was a success with more than 210 people showing up.

NMTGHOMTBPTC is about a fair maiden named Spring Overton (Maria Boulden) who somehow, someway, lost her memory. She ends up at the house of the Vandenburg family and soon their youngest son, Casper Vandenburg (David Weed) falls in love with the beautiful Spring. Meanwhile, a dashing, daring villain, Talbolt Twillingham (Paul Colligan), enters into the picture. Talbolt has decided that he will take over the Vandenburg fortune. Talbolt enlists the aid of the butler (William Hunter) and the French maid Fifi (Amy Route). Soon, the master of the family, Sylvester Vandenburg (Mark Colligan) is murdered and it looks like Spring Overton did the job! Twists and turns take place and, finally, all is well. Spring regains her memory and Talbolt gets put behind bars.

ACADEMIC TEAM

The Academic Team (formerly Brain Bowl) meets once a year, in the late fall, to compete in a College-Bowl situation. The five students who attended were chosen from each class for their ability to think and react quickly in a variety of subjects ranging from computers to trigonometry to classical literature to ecology. This year's match, held in Zweibrücken, proved to be a challenging one that found the students competing with schools throughout DODDS-Germany.

KNIGHT'S FOOTBALL

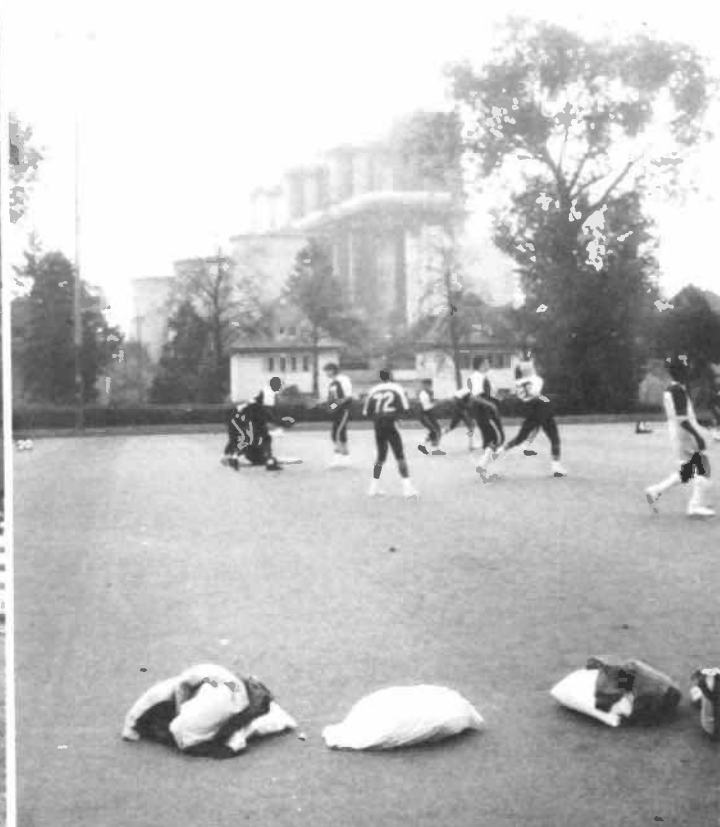

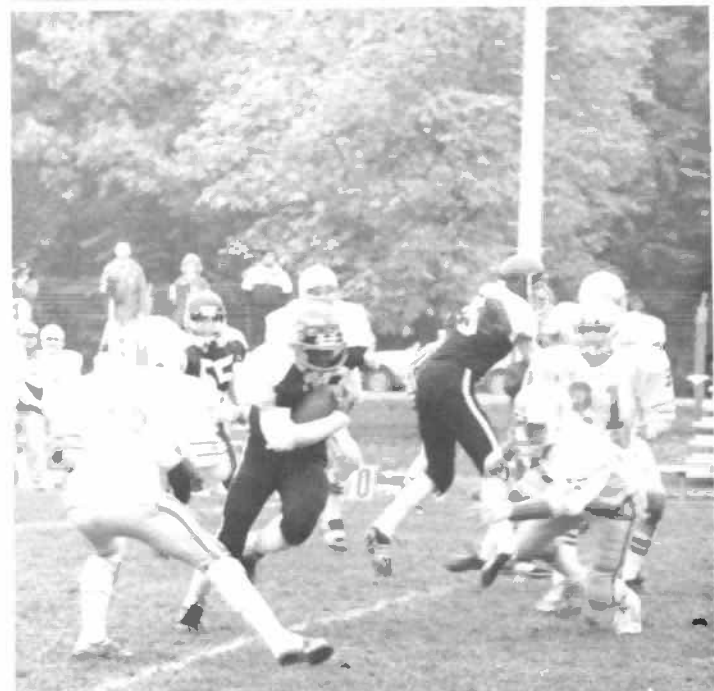

The Knights started the season on the road in Munich where they experienced their first loss of the season at 44 to 6. The next week the Knights were home against Augsburg and won 34 to 21. Lenny Lesure scored three touchdowns and Mike Parker and Kenny Barnes each scored one. Frank Ennix scored the only extra point of the game. The Knights' next opponent was Bad Kreuznach. The Knights played a super defensive game holding BK scoreless. However, the final score was Karlsruhe 0, BK 8. The Knights' next trip was to Giessen, which resulted in a defeat of the Knights at 45-0. The next week the Knights were still on the road. Berlin defeated them 26-6. Osterholz was the next opponent to come to town. The Blackhawks were winning 0 to 20 at the half, but the Knights came back for a glorious 38 to 20 defeat. with Lenny Lesure running for 224 yds. Fulda came to Karlsruhe for the Knights' Homecoming. The Knights jumped out to a 14 to 0 third quarter lead on a Robbie Ailshire to Mike Parker touchdown pass and a Lenny Lesure 70 yd. touchdown run. However, Fulda came back with two touchdown passes of their own to tie the game. The game went into overtime where Fulda won 20 to 14.

The Knights fought the odds all year long, but they never gave up. Karlsruhe Knights' Football Team of '87. We are proud of you!

VARSITY VOLLEYBALL

The volleyball team worked extremely hard this year to boost KAHS spirit and to bring recognition to the sport. Although the practices may have been tough and the coaches strict, their hard work paid off when they went to the Class A Tournaments in Giessen where they ranked second in their league. Debbie Hatch was honored with the All-Tournament award. Renee Fritz and Karie Rice were both awarded one of the highest honors a player can receive in volleyball — All-Conference Player. Although every team player did not receive some type of award, there were many ladies who showed great style and ability at the tournaments. Val Jones and Debbie Hatch were commended for their incredible hits and Karie Rice and Lisa Wilson, the two setters, were also recognized for their performance during tournaments. Anna Toney, a junior varsity player, played with the varsity team during tournaments where she also showed skill and talent.

JR. VARSITY VOLLEYBALL

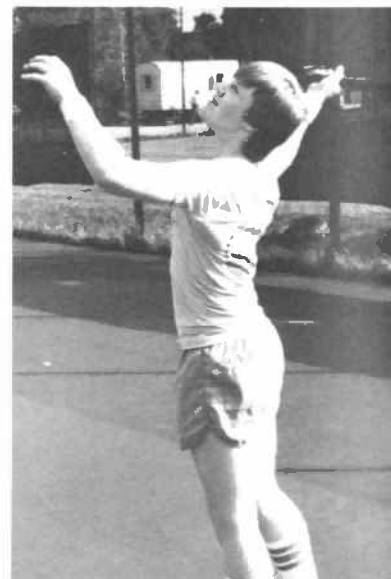

The tennis season came to a close with an overall record of 5-1 for the Knights, who lost only to Berlin. The men's team, led by top seeded players Jeff Bandel, Kenny Starr and Chad Starr and captain Tom Hapgood, received the title "A-Central Champs." With a total of nine players, the team completed the season totally undefeated. The women's team got off to a good start as well with top seeded players Chelle Wolboldt and Terri Deveau, but suffered later with the losses of some team members.

TRAVEL WITH US

FOR SOME PARTING MEMORIES

OF THE PEOPLE, PLACES, AND FACES

WE MET IN 1988.

AND LOOKING BACK

Do we have to pose for another stupid picture?

Rodney's discovered the latest Macho Creme.

Shakespeare, Daybooks ... and Ms. Gruber!

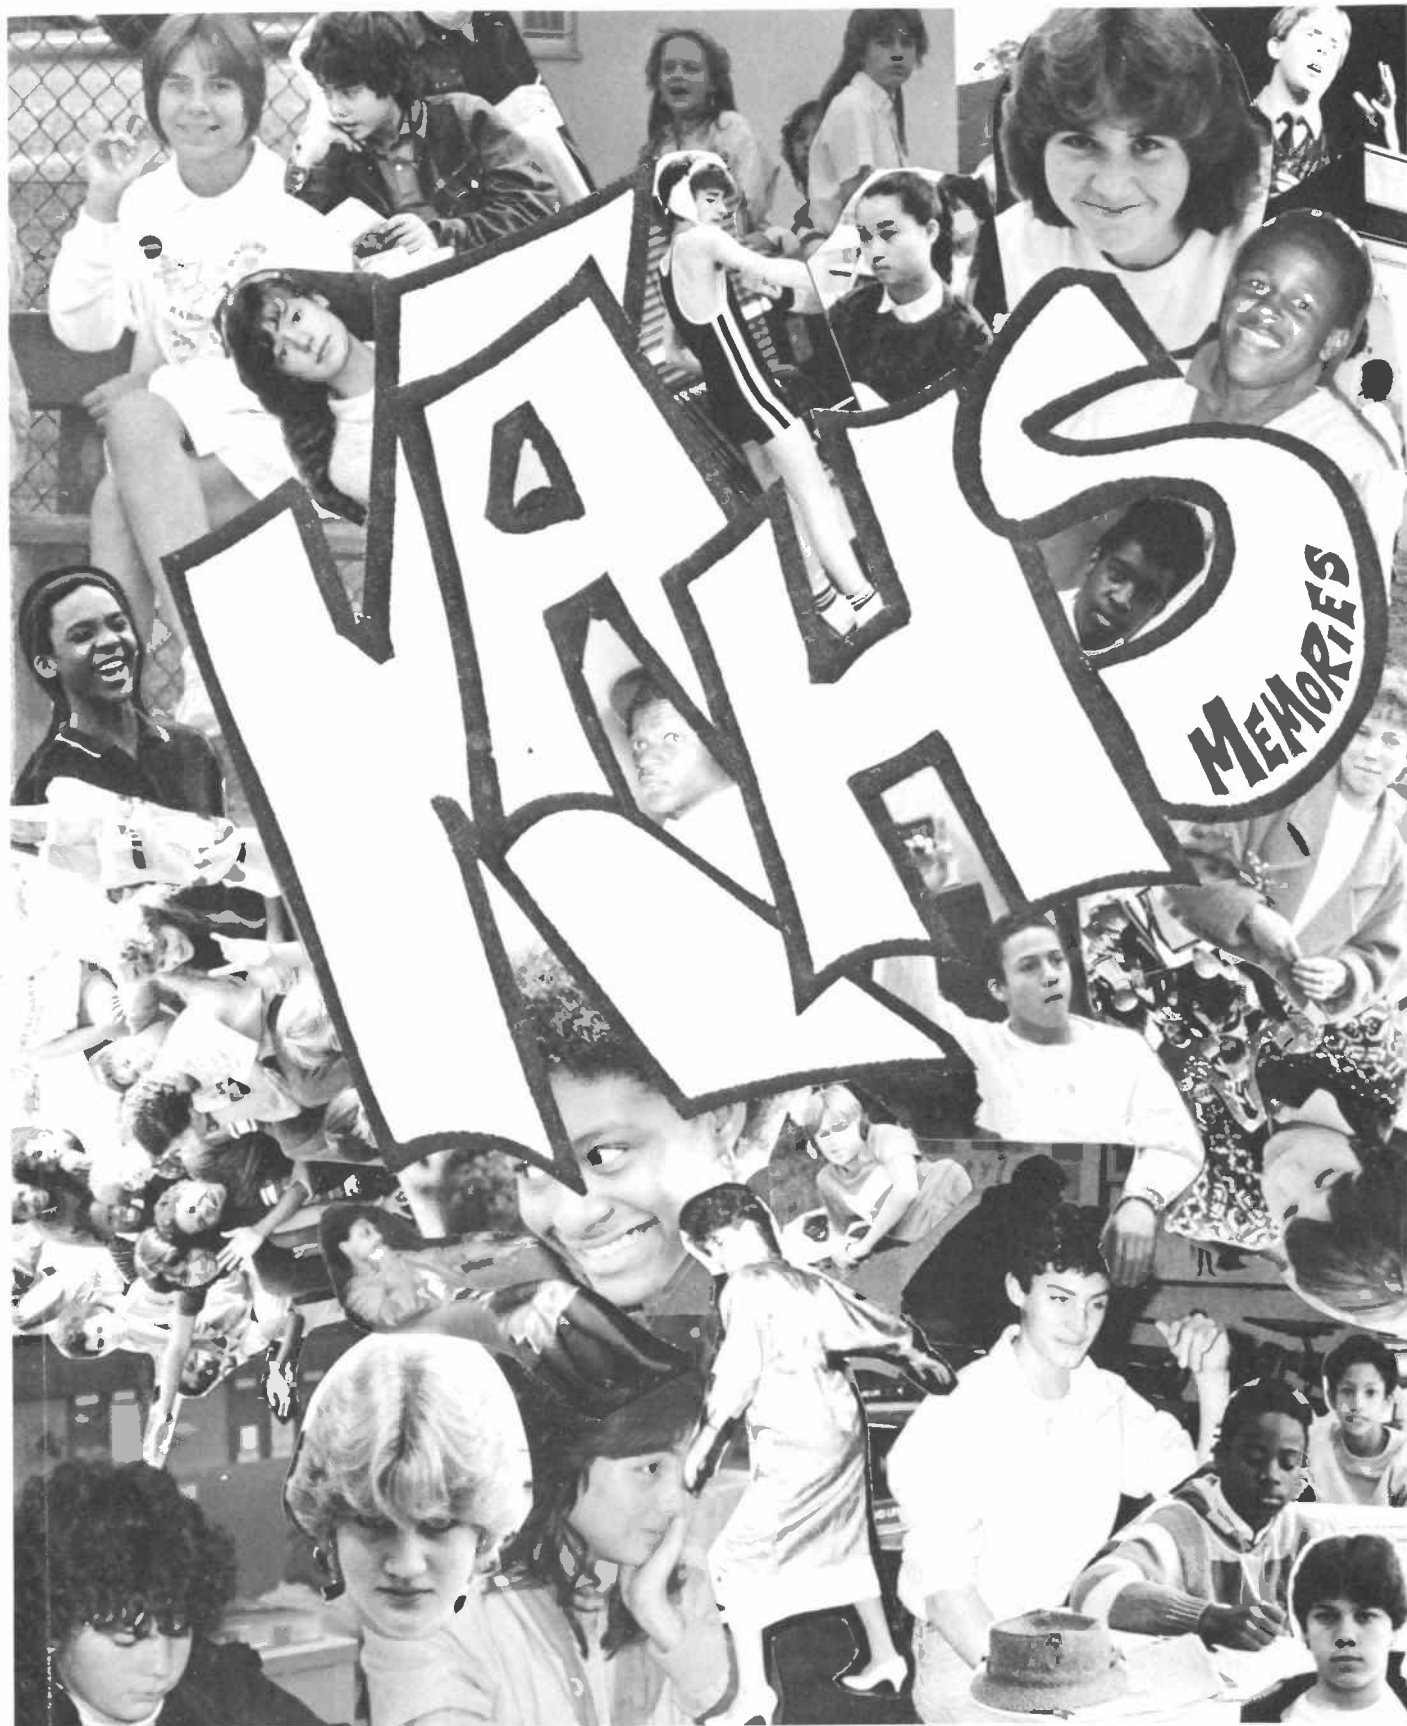

Look, Mr. Olive! No cheat sheets!

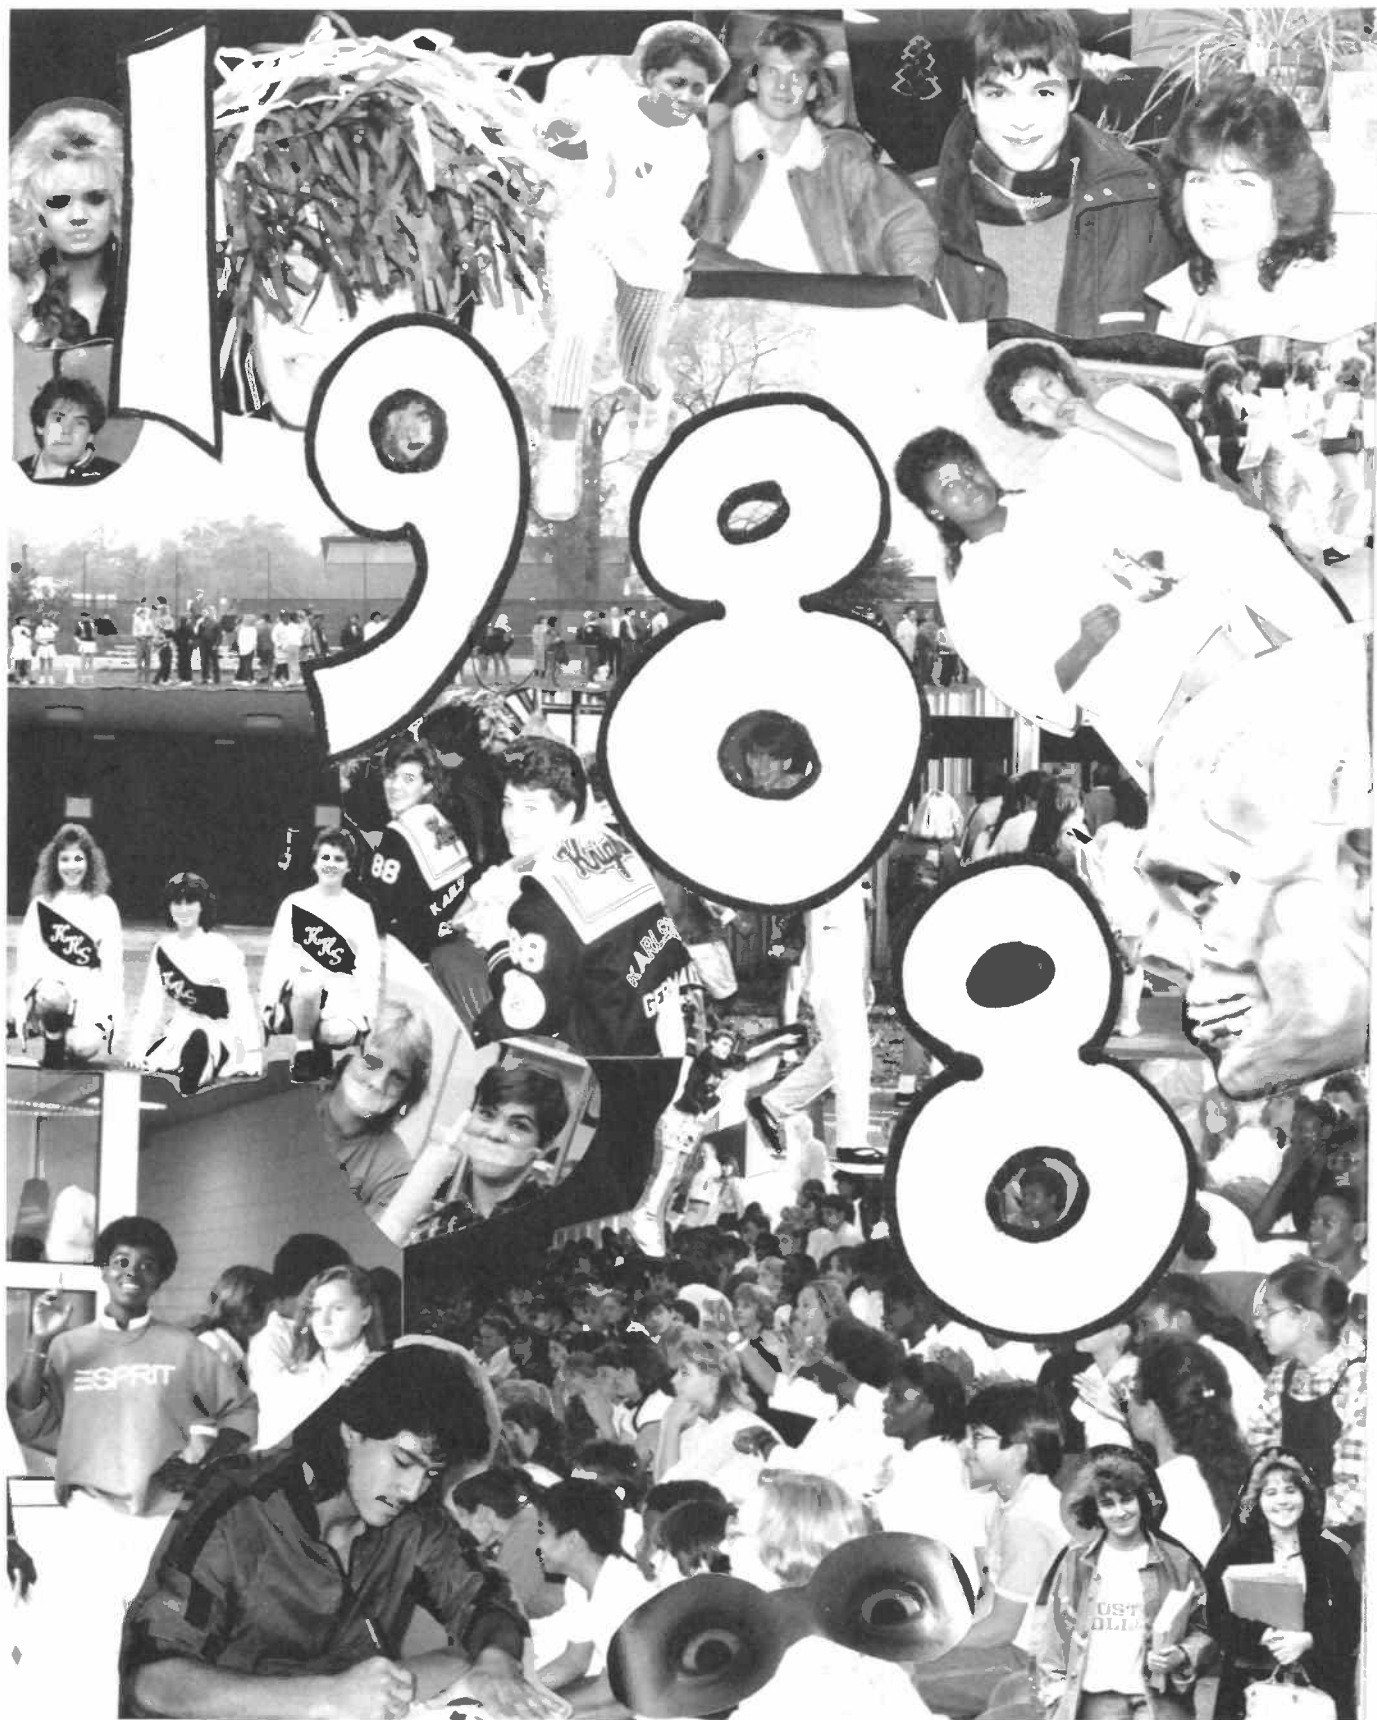

I'm just checking my eyelids for pinholes.
